

1
2
3
4
5 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
6 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

7 CEN COM, INC., a Washington Corporation
8 doing business as American Digital
Monitoring,

9 Plaintiff,

10 v.

11 NUMEREX CORP., a Pennsylvania
12 Corporation; NextAlarm, LLC, a Georgia
13 Limited Liability Company; and DOES 1 –
10,

14 Defendants.
15

Case No. C17-0560 RSM

ORDER REGARDING SANCTIONS

16 On March 7, 2018, this Court granted Defendant's Motion for Order to Show Cause
17 and directed Plaintiff to disclose whether "Attorney's Eyes Only" information was shared
18 with anyone not so permitted in the Protective Order, and to show cause why it should not be 19 sanctioned as proposed by Defendant for violating this Court's Protective Order. Dkt. #60.
20 Plaintiff responded as directed. Dkt. #67. Having reviewed Plaintiff's response, and the 21 remainder of the record, the Court shall impose sanctions on Plaintiff's counsel in the amount
22 of $500.00 for its violation of the Court's Protective Order by filing documents on the public
23 docket that were marked "Attorney's Eyes Only."
24

25 //

26 //

ORDER - 1

1           It is hereby ORDERED that Plaintiff's counsel shall pay the sanction of $500 to
2 Defendant no later than fourteen (14) days from the date of this Order.

3           DATED this 11th day of April 2018.
4

5
6

7 RICARDO S. MARTINEZ
8 CHIEF UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26